DEDICATION

This research work is dedicated to God Almighty.

Acknowledgement

To the all wise God, my inspiration and source of hope never to give up even when there was a cogent reason to; I thank you.

My profound gratitude goes to my father, Mr Okwor Dennis and my mother Mrs Caroline Okwor for all the support financially and in prayers.

When I first handled the material for this project work, all I could think I saw was academic jargons not knowing that it was I who did not understand what I was reading. But my able supervisor, a father, an inspiration to my career world, very intelligent and smart Mr Ugwanyi Felix, broke down everything to my very little understanding and today am very proud that I did this research work because of his enormous help and contributions. Thank you very much and God bless you.

To my lecturers, am so grateful, without you I would never be this great mass communicator: Mr Damian Agboeze Dr Regina Acholonu Mrs Tina Obi, Mr Obasi, and; thank you all.

There is this one person whose help and support started at the letter part of my schooling but very strong, I must say she encourage me, supported me in every aspect you can think of, sometimes while she is encouraging me I would get angry because I felt she did not understand what I was going through. But at the end she made the most sense in all things Mrs. Eluwa. Thank you.

Abstract

The aim of this study was to investigate the influence of Television on the social behaviour of youths in Enugu North Local Government Area. The study adopted the survey method. The instrument for data collection was the questionnaire. Two Hundred copies of questionnaire were distributed to the respondents. Hypotheses formulated were tested using Chi-square formular. The hypothesis when analyzed tested positive indicating that Television influences youths negatively. The study therefore recommended that emphasis should be placed on moral conducts and decency in Television programme productions.
